Code of conduct
C2021 is committed to creating a virtual space that is safe and welcoming, and which values the diverse perspectives and experiences of all attendees. All virtual conference delegates are expected to uphold CES' values of equity, diversity and inclusion through their online engagements and abide by the C2021 Virtual Code of Conduct which promotes a discrimination- and harassment-free space. All are also expected to respect intellectual property and to refrain from posting screenshots to social media.
